“Think Of You” (Life Of The Party)

Opener:

Circle Left

I walk in on Friday Nights

Same old bar, same burned out lights

Boys star right, Roll it you go

Allemande the corner, Weave

We used to be the life of the party

We used to be the ones that they wished they were

Promenade

Of how bright we burned, well now it hurts,

But it's true

When they think of me, they think of you.

FIGURE:

Heads [Sides] Promenade Halfway Around you go

Walkin and Square Thru four hands you know

All the way round, touch $\frac{1}{4}$ here

Scoot back and then, boys run right (c'mon and)

Star thru, Pass Thru, Trade By - Swing

Swing that corner girl, Promenade The Ring

Of how bright we burned Well now it hurts,

But it's true

When they think of me, they think of you

MIDDLE BREAK:

Meet my friends for a boys (girls) night out

Seems there ain't much to talk about

CLOSER:

The keep asking how I am

But they're really asking where you've been
