“The Touch Of Your Hand”

Opener:

Sides Face Grand Square
*I found your letters today
Well I had tucked them away
With a pair of white gloves and a fan
Allemande and Weave
I held them for awhile
They took me back and made me smile
As I remembered the touch of your hand

Figure:

1 & 3 (2 & 4) promenade half way
Square thru 2 hands
Swing thru – Boy run right
Bend the line – right & left thru
Courtesy turn a quarter more girls trade – boys fold
Swing the corner promenade
I remembered the touch of your hand

Additional Words:

*Now the face in the mirror is older
The children worry they don't understand
I don't live for the past
But in dreams I still dance
And remember the touch of your hand
